This is the first revision book to be published exclusively for candidates taking the FRCS(Urol) examination. It contains a selection of questions arising from common clinical scenarios along with detailed model answers.

The emphasis is placed upon current concepts and topics commonly asked in the exam. Each chapter has been written by senior urology trainees who have recently passed the examination together with experienced consultant urological surgeons who are experts in their field.

In addition to the FRCS(Urol) examination, this book will also be useful for those candidates sitting the FEBU or MSc/Diploma in Urology examination. Established consultants seeking a useful refresher text in areas outside their subspecialist interest will also find this useful.
